opposition. Her lesson here is to learn to accept her vulnerabilities as life's lessons. She has a need to be needed and gives her service to others; she makes a great counsellor and has a very sensitive ear. Her karmic judgement of herself can be fault finding and very hard to please, sometimes she might find herself being self indulgent, her sharp judgement without reason can cause inner turmoil. This can lead to a short fuse. The opposite of this is someone who is intellectually optimistic and can see everyone's point of view when she decides to take the blindfold off and to face the truth on what lies ahead.

What can we expect for Dannii in the next coming months?

The next few months create a second chance for her to have creativity at her finger tips. She will have to face a love decision, there will also be an opportunity for her to start a new life in a new home, I would go as far as saying she will go over sea's but only to return again. The USA will feature strongly in her life. Her sister Kylie Minogue will make a record with her. This will be in remembrance of a family member. She needs to think before she leaps as there are big choices to be made in more than one area of her life. As the contracts come in fast and furious, being selective will cause greater success. She will also be approached to do a short series.

Mind, Body & Soul The Judgement card

This is an opportunity for Dannii to look back, even though there has been disappointment and pain, this is the card of renewable energy. She may have felt as though the world has judged her and those close to her but now she understands life is just a game and that it is time to play and to strip herself naked from all guilt and blame. Her luck is going to change as she emerges from a rebirth, the colours pink for unconditional love and purple for spiritual growth and truth are apparent in her aura.

What can we expect for romance?

Her love life is going to start off with such sparks and love is more than in the air. However long she has been going out with her current partner there is room for deeper love and promises of commitment if she is willing to take his hand of marriage. I see true love for this couple but I also predict a new arrival that will question the love between them. She is with a partner that she is able to share her deepest feelings with and for the first time open her heart in a way that she has never been able to before.
